

Regulations regarding the web site and the Newsletter of the Society

The Society shall maintain a web site that serves its members. The society will also publish a newsletter that promotes the Society's activities and presents the Society's vision and goals.

With the approval of the Board of Directors, the President appoints a web master and an editor of the newsletter. Both the editor of the newsletter and the web master shall serve for a two-year term, starting in 2008.